Why this tool matters

Looking beyond local borders to realize that the struggles of a specific neighborhood echo the universal human quest to preserve memory and identity against the pressures of rapid urbanization.

Evidence we produce

An analytical report comparing the local site's performance against international standards and similar heritage sites, identifying gaps in management and opportunities for sustainable development.

Duration & Material

Duration · 2 to 4 months of data collection and comparative analysis

Material · Global monitoring tools (e.g., UNESCO Culture for Development Indicators), international database access, analytical frameworks

Reference case

The ATLAS World Heritage project utilized comparative studies across multiple Atlantic Area cities. By benchmarking management practices and developing sustainability plans based on shared international methodologies, partner cities co-created and tested inclusive heritage management models before applying them locally,,.

Suggested agenda · Brief (10 min) > Method walk-through (15 min) > Animation canvas (60-90 min) > Harvest (20 min)

Harvesting our learnings

After running the canvas, capture three layers of insight.

What inspires me

Stand-out signals, surprising stories, ideas to remember

How to apply it here

Concrete adaptations to our context, our team, our constraints

What we need to be autonomous

Skills, allies, resources, decisions still to secure
