Why this tool matters

Turning the subjective desires and lived experiences of the residents into the very legal DNA that dictates how the city will be built.

Evidence we produce

A published manual or set of technical standards, validated by the community, that dictates how future physical interventions must respect local heritage and user needs,.

Duration & Material

Duration · 3 to 6 months of drafting and validation

Material · Planning documents, architectural drawings, community feedback reports

Reference case

UN-Habitat public space site-specific assessments involve expert design studios that translate community mapping and "Block by Block" workshops into concrete recommendations. These processes produce feasibility studies and co-created design guidelines that municipalities use to prioritize and anchor future urban interventions.

Harvesting our learnings

After running the canvas, capture three layers of insight.

What inspires me

Stand-out signals, surprising stories, ideas to remember

How to apply it here

Concrete adaptations to our context, our team, our constraints

What we need to be autonomous

Skills, allies, resources, decisions still to secure
